Learning Opportunity
The Movement Disorder Video Rounds program allows for UCSD faculty and invited specialists to share their cases and enables neurologists, residents, and fellows to learn from them. Using a case-based approach, at the end of each session attendees should be able to:
- Critically examine the clinical features of selected movement disorders
- Organize a differential diagnosis.
- Learn clues that led to a revision of the diagnosis.

CME Accredited
The University of California, San Diego, School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The University of California, San Diego, School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
